STATE OF MISSOURI,
COUNTY OF IRON.

I, Jos. A. Reyburn, Clerk of the County Court within and for the County of Iron, do hereby certify that the above and foregoing is a true and correct list containing the name and postoffice address of each candidate, together with a designation of the office for which he is a candidate, the party or principle he represents and the hours during which the polls will be open.

In testimony whereof, I hereunto set my hand and affix the seal of the County Court, Done at (SEAL) office in Ironton, Missouri, this, 29th day of June, 1912.

JOS. A. REYBURN,
Clerk of the County Court Iron County, Mo.

HON. HENRI WATTERSON is too big a man for me to criticize; but if he were a common country editor I would say he is making an ass of himself.

O, YES, I, too, desire to let bygones be bygones; but I want the other fellow to do so, too. The cry of "peace," to be effective for "harmony," cannot be one-sided. Brethren, let us get together!

I HOPE every reader of the REGISTER will read the platform adopted at Baltimore. It is clear, clean-cut, and Democratic from "skin to core and from core back to skin again"—to use an apple-cake phrase in frequent use a few years ago.

THE predatory interests contingent undertook to run the steam roller over one Wm. Jennings Bryan; but it now is wiser if not so handsome as before.

O, it's short and sad the story told—
They that sought to roll, themselves got rolled!

E. W. MAJOR is my choice for Governor because he has "made good" to the people in the position he now holds. He has conducted his office intelligently and done his full duty as public prosecutor, "without fear, favor or affection." He has not been, as is too often the case these days, lenient to the rich and powerful, while vigorous against offenders without purse or "pull." He has made big law-breaking corporations step to the rhythm of the statute, as they never marched before. They are down on him, and their henchmen are very active against his promotion to the office of Chief Executive. But the people whom he has served faithfully and well, I believe, will see to it that he is not made a victim because of the service he has rendered them. He is faithful, honest and competent; has been tried and not found wanting. For these reasons I believe the Democrats of Missouri will make him their standard-bearer, and that he will lead them to victory in November—a consummation devoutly to be wished.

Washington Correspondence.
BY C. H. TAYNEN.

WASHINGTON, July 12.—There is a vast difference between the platforms adopted by the Republicans at Chicago and the Democrats at Baltimore. The Republican platform is thoroughly reactionary standpoint. It prates about "protecting American workmen," and "maintaining the American standard of wages," when every citizen knows that both of these are shams and hypocrisies. The Republican platform also is evasive, so that in the remote event of Republican success, it could be interpreted in any way the high tariff bosses might want it interpreted.

The Democratic platform, on the other hand, is specific and definite. It promises, not to "revise the tariff," but to revise it "downward." Here, briefly, are some of the important promises in the Democratic document:

1—A tariff for revenue only. Immediate revision downward. Trust controlled products to go on the free list.

2—Civil and criminal prosecution of trusts. Laws to stop monopoly and stock watering. Amendment to make the Sherman law effective.

3—A demand for the ratification of the amendments for an income tax and direct election of senators.

4—Publicity for all recommendations on which Presidential appointments are made; also for all campaign funds in national elections.

5—Presidential primaries and popular election of national committeemen. Use of money by corporations at elections to be made unlawful.

6—A single term for President.

7—Supervision of railroad, telegraph, telephone and express rates.

8—Revision of the banking laws to prevent concentration and misuse of money. No government deposits in favored banks.

9—Laws to improve the rivers and prevent floods.

10—Restriction of the judiciary to its proper functions.

11—Philippine independence. Trial by jury in cases of indirect taxation. Parcels post and postal express, and extension of rural delivery. Conservation that will
